National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH)
Regional Application Writing Workshop

The workshop will be conducted by Russell Wyland, PhD. Deputy Director, Division of Research Programs and includes presentations on NEH programs, specific writing strategies for competitive applications, Q&A sessions. There is no charge for the workshop and the workshop is open to all faculty, staff, and interested participants from across the region, regardless of institution.

Russell Wyland serves as the division’s Deputy Director where he acted as principal author of “Research Fellowships: An Evaluation of 2002-2004 Awards” and, more recently, as architect for the NEH-Mellon Fellowships for Digital Publication. He has served in several capacities at NEH since joining the staff in 1990, including as senior program officer in charge of NEH Fellowships and as Assistant Director for Individual Programs. In 2006, he worked in the Program Management Office at Grants.gov, directing its eAuthentication development and implementation efforts.

September 26, 2019

University of Arizona
Environment & Natural Resources Building 2
Agnese Nelms Haury Lecture Hall, S107

Should you require lodging, please contact the following hotels near campus directly:
Tucson Marriott University Park: tinyurl.com/MarriottNEH or the Aloft Tucson University: tinyurl.com/y4ykb25q

Register at tinyurl.com/NEHWorkshop

Since this event has been rescheduled from January of 2019, limited seats are available.